

Elevator Speech

Create an elevator speech; a short, three-sentence speech that defines why innovative and creating thinking are important to the organization and to your department. Share this with your co-workers and enlist their help to search for innovative ways outside of your organization.

Write your elevator speech down here: